

Two days specialised training on “Legal Issues in Forests, Wildlife and Environment” for Lawyers and Défense counsels
20th and 21st September 2021

Forests are important for the survival of all living beings. They are vital for our life as they provide oxygen, food, shelter, fuel and means of livelihood for the tribal people living in and around the forest area. Forest is a self-nourishing system, which is a host to a number of organisms. As the modern age arises and gains momentum, the rate at which the Forests are declining is increasing day by day. The Importance of conservation of Forests and Wildlife is the need of the hour without which the existence of mankind is a big question. To achieve the objective of Conservation, the active role of judiciary is required for strict implementation of Forests and Wildlife laws and safeguarding the Environment for guaranteeing inter-generational equity and sustainable development for prosperity.
